CRAN TAKES ON MORE CESS BENEFICIARIES

The Child Education Support Scheme (CESS) is one of the packages CRAN has to offer pupils and students who are brilliant but needy from the basic school levels to the Senior High School (SHS) stage. Through the generous donation of CRAN Freudeskreis, four (4) more children have been added to the CESS beneficiaries in addition to the six added on earlier this year. All the four children, who are in the lower primary were profiled and shortlisted from the CRAN Abakam Presby basic school in the Cape Coast Metropolis of the Central Region. Both parents, children and the teachers, could not hide their joy as the package will go a long way to help the pupils remain in school to learn. This is because one component of this package is to give lunch subsidies to the beneficiaries. The beneficiaries from right to left are; Fiabu Tsoenemawu, Henry Senakey Edem, Etornam Bosomtwi and Bernice Anlomegah

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION AND GRATITUDE

Two of the CRAN's CESS beneficiaries thus, Thomas Dzikunu and Agbeko Cudjoe have both written to show appreciation to the entire CRAN team for their support towards the educational development in their life. In the voice of Thomas, he said, "the package of the CESS program has taken off a huge financial burden on my parents to enable me go through my education to the senior high level. I am so grateful to the sponsors for their kindness to me". Cudjoe on the other hand, could not know how to express his joy and happiness about the fact that he also had the privilege to enjoy the CESS package to this level. All he could say was "thank you to all the sponsors who made it possible for him to attain this feat". They have shown a level of indebtedness to CRAN as they noted that, many of their mates in the various deprived schools who need such support and assistance and that, CRAN should do well to reach out to these ones who need help like them.

A TIME WITH ABAKAM PRESBY SCHOOL PUPILS

The Basic Education Certificate Examination (BECE) is the external examination that is conducted by the West African Examination Council (WAEC) at the basic school level for those in the last stage of the Junior High School which qualifies them to enter into the Senior High School. Per the exams schedules this year, the pupils are supposed to begin this exams from the 4th - 9th of June, 2018. As part of a working visit, the CRAN team went to interact and encouraged the pupils of the Abakam CRAN Presby Basic School as part of their preparations towards their pending exams. Per our interaction with the pupils, they have shown some levels of confidence and preparedness for the exams. The teaching staff on the other hand could not hide their confidence as they are counting on the grace of God that, their efforts in preparing these pupils will be enough to make themselves proud even as they go into the exams. CRAN on their part, prayed with the candidates for God's guidance and protection for them. The pictures are few images showing the interaction sessions with the school pupils.
