KEEP PRAISING IN THE STRUGGLE

Scripture Reading: Psalm 9

“When my enemies turn back, They shall fall and perish at Your presence.” Psalm 9:3

In verses one and two the psalmist chose to praise God. Now, David spoke about the situation he was in and how he expected the situation to turn out. He opened our eyes to the enemies who were running after him. David was under attack; he was being pursued. Yet, he found time to praise God and recount His goodness.

- When my enemies turn back. The psalmist praised the Lord and looked forward to the day when those who were pursuing him would turn back. David teaches us that the presence of your enemies does not indicate God’s absence.

Together with David, we can also affirm that though the enemy will pursue us, he will not catch up to us. Neither will the enemy overtake us. God will keep us a step ahead of the attacker.

Bishop Jonathan Ekuban

KEEP PRAISING IN THE STRUGGLE

• They shall fall and perish at Your presence. The psalmist recognizes that his enemies' retreat is not because of his own power or strategy, but rather it was caused by God. The presence of God is the most reliable insurance package from the attacks of the enemy and the psalmist points out that the place where the enemy will fall and perish is before the presence of God.

The presence of the Lord turns the battle in our favour. In the Old Testament, God is often pictured as a Warrior, taking to the battlefield on Israel's behalf and beating back the enemy. This suggests that your enemies would have no other opportunity to replicate a similar attack against you because God will immobilize all their efforts.

God will fight on your behalf when enemies rise up
Prayer:

Heavenly Father, your presence turns my enemies away. At your appearance, darkness disappears. In Jesus name, Amen!

DONATION TO

DWENASE

We are happy to share with you the news of a successful donation to Dwenase Presby Primary, a rural school in the central region of Ghana.

DONATION TO

DWENASE

Ghana Freundeskreis in partnership with Blue Horizon Aid, Pastor Michael Junk, other Individuals and organizations in Germany donated school desks, computer desk and two cupboards to Dwenase Presby Primary in one of the villages in the central region.

DONATION TO DWENASE

The donation was made possible by the generous support of Ghana Freundeskreis and Blue Horizon Aid, a non-governmental organization that provides humanitarian assistance and development projects in Ghana. Other individuals and organization in Germany also contributed to the cause.

The donation was delivered on December 13, 2023, by a team of representatives from Blue Horizon Aid and Rev Alex Owusu Addo who visited the school and met with the school authorities and the community leaders.

The team was warmly welcomed and appreciated by the school and the community, who expressed their gratitude and joy for the donation.

DONATION TO DWENASE

The donation consisted of a computer desk, two cupboards and 35 school desks, which were made of durable and quality materials, designed to accommodate two students each.

The desks were distributed to the upper primary classrooms of the school, which cater to about 70 students from primary six to JHS 2.

The desks replaced the old and broken furniture that the school had been using for years, and which had caused discomfort and inconvenience to the students and the teachers. The donation was aimed at improving the learning environment and the academic performance of the students, as well as enhancing the health and safety of the students and the teachers.

The donation was also intended to motivate and inspire the students and the teachers to pursue their education and their dreams, and to show the love and care of their friends in Germany.

DONATION TO DWEENSE

The donation was part of the broader education and development program of Ghana Freundeskreis and Blue Horizon Aid with offices in the Greater Accra and Central regions of Ghana, which also includes the provision of books, stationery, uniforms, scholarships, and skills training.

We thank God for His grace and provision, and we thank all the donors and supporters for their generosity and kindness. We also thank the school and the community for their cooperation and hospitality. We look forward to continuing our partnership and friendship with them, and to seeing the positive impact of the donation in the lives of the students and the teachers.
